

Jeremy Tucker, DO

Dr. Tucker is the Chair of Emergency Medicine at Yale Lawrence and Memorial Hospital in New London, CT and National Director of Patient Safety at US Acute Care Solutions. He completed medical school at Des Moines University and combined residency in internal medicine and emergency medicine at Midwestern University in Chicago, IL. In addition, he is a Certified Professional in Patient Safety. He has worked extensively in quality, risk and safety including opioid initiatives for ACOEP, and USACS.

Dr. Tucker has Chaired the Practice Management Committee for ACOEP and serves on the EM Practice Committee for ACEP. He advises healthcare technology start-ups and has Co-Founded a healthcare start-up and a drone company.