A step-by-step guide through the process of selecting a medical specialty and obtaining a residency position that has been a vital tool for generations of medical students. Packed with tips and practical information, this book could be called How to Get the Most out of Medical School!

Completely updated, this unique book provides invaluable information about all the medical specialties, including the difficulty of obtaining a position and the number of available slots. Numerous charts illustrate the specialty selection process, updated URLs provide access to current information, and the "Must/Want" Analysis provides a way to rank residency program selections.

- What specialty is best for me? How will I know?
- Where can I get information about specialties and programs?
- How many applications should I send? To which programs?
- How do I complete applications? Résumés? Personal statements?
- What special problems will I encounter if I am a woman? Minority? IMG? Couple? Osteopathic graduate? Older physician? Physically impaired?
- How do I prepare for the interview? How do I dress?
- What questions should I ask? What shouldn't I ask?
- What questions will they ask me? How should I answer?
- What matching program do I use? How do they work? How and when do I apply?
- How do I choose between programs?
- After I match, then what?
